Susie served as a fulltime youth pastor in Conway, Ark., Longmont, Colo., San Antonio, Texas and Bethany, Okla.

After staff ministry, she enjoyed teaching speech, English, drama and creative writing in the public school system.

Her public school experience was interrupted with an invitation to join Focus on the Family who hired her to create a magazine for teen girls. Brio was launched in March of 1990, and Susie served as editor for nearly two decades. During that time, she also launched a spin-off magazine for older girls called Brio & Beyond. She also started a book line for teens girls, began overseas mission trips for guys and girls and produced two mother/daughter cruises.

In 2009, due to economic problems, Focus on the Family discontinued their teen products and dismissed the youth staff. Susie, already an ordained elder in the Church of the Nazarene, entered fulltime evangelism while launching a new magazine for teen girls titled SUSIE Mag. She was against naming it after herself, but the marketing team at the new publisher's insisted on using her name as a bridge of familiarity for Christian teen girls wondering what happened to Brio. Three years later, she changed the title to SISTERHOOD Magazine.

Susie continued as editor until 2014 and then stepped away from the daily tasks to concentrate more on fulltime speaking and writing.

She has been a guest on the former "Montel Williams Show," "Fox News" and CNNs HLN (Headline News Network).

Susie was honored by Southern Nazarene University in 2000 with The Centennial Award, and October 6, 2010 Olivet Nazarene University awarded her the Reed Institute Lifetime Achievement Leadership Award.

About Susie's Speaking...

Fasten your seatbelts! Once Susie begins, she delivers a rapid-pace, in-depth, non-compromising message that an audience will remember for years, Using lots of humor, she dives inside the Scripture and pulls out fresh, creative, captivating challenges.

Susie is passionate about Jesus Christ and travels approximately 42 weeks/weekends every year guiding people into deeper intimacy with Him.

In the past, Susie toured with ZOEGirl and Superchick as their keynote speaker, served as keynote speaker for Girls of Grace with Point of Grace for four years and completed two Christmas tours with Rebecca St. James as her keynote speaker. Susie has also spoken at Creation Festival and Alive Festival.

Rev. Michael Parenti gave a very powerful message Sunday afternoon. His message reminded us of the battle and warfare we are involved in. We have a powerful enemy but a much more powerful God that we serve. You don't want to miss hearing his speak the word that God has given him.

Sunday evening Evangelist Susie Shellenberger reminded us that we need to clean the stage of our lives of all the things that would distract us from God and from what He wants to do in our lives.

Our two special speakers will be alternating services as they speak through the week. Please come and listen to what God has given them to share with us.

the book of Romans. Plan on being in the tabernacle each morning at 9:00AM for this great time of learning.

Like to shop? Don't go into to town to find something to buy before you stop over at the Mission Station, located just down the sidewalk from the Snack Shack/dining hall. You never know what treasures you will find there, plus it goes to support work and witness. I understand there is a silent auction going on for a beautiful candle lamp, painted with an African scene. Stop by, see what you can find and support missions.

The Mission Station is open Monday-Saturday 9AM-10AM and 1:30PM-4:00PM

In the youth service yesterday, our youth evangelist, Bob Keuther, took time to call out Nick Siordia from Waynesburg, and have all the teens and adults lay hands on him and pray for him as he prepared to leave for the U.S.

Navy. What a great time to be able to pray with and for this young man choosing to serve God's leading in the Navy.

There are pictures located in the tabernacle of the teens and some of the adults that helped during youth camp this year. If you would like to take the picture of one of these teens and pray for them and send them a word of encouragement and let them know they are being prayed for, please stop by take one, but then please be faithful to pray for these teens.

This evening's service is NMI night. You won't want to miss this exciting time.
