

2016 Family Camp

PITTSBURGH DISTRICT CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

Lives Changed For Eternity

Family Camp Newsletter Tuesday, July 26, 2016 Edition

Where were you when the winds fell on Mount Chestnut?

A special thanks to everyone who pitched in to help clear all the debris that fell after the storm roared through the campgrounds yesterday. There were many limbs down, even a whole tree and several that had snapped. Praise the Lord that no one was hurt during the storm and with the falling of all the debris. God is good!

Tuesday's Menu

Breakfast: Eggs, Oatmeal, Muffin Sandwich, Hash browns, Fruit, Cereal

Lunch: Asian Beef W/ Snow Peas, Rice, Cookies

Dinner: Ham, Au Gratin Potatoes, 5-way Blend Veggies, Rolls, Boston Cream Pie

Menu subject to change without notice

Does the regular menu not sound appetizing? Try the Snack Shack! The menu at the Snack Shack gets bigger and better all the time.

Breakfast 8:00-8:45AM

Lunch 12:00-12:45PM

Dinner 5:00-6:00PM

Our children are having a great time at the Fuller Pavilion at 9:00AM doing crafts and playing games in the glade. Make sure your kids are there

Have you stopped by the Mission Station yet? You need to stop by and do some shopping. We are located between the tabernacle and dining hall.

Rev. Ray Degenkolp has begun his teaching series on the book of Ephesians at 9:00AM in the Tabernacle. You don't want to miss this great teaching time.

Teens! If you missed chapel Monday you missed a great time. You don't want to miss the teaching of Rev. Adrian Mills. The music, the fellowship, the instruction, what more could you ask for.
